

Starting February 14, 2022 and ending February 14, 2023

Kids read 25 books from our list of 27 categories, and win a sling backpack.

How to Participate

- Sign up online or in person at Larsen-Sant Library between February 14, and Aug 1, 2022.
- Read 25 books in 52 weeks. Match the books you read to the reading categories provided.
- All books you read for the challenge must be recorded on your reading log. Record the title and author by category.
- You may keep your reading log in almost any form, as long as you give a paper copy to library staff (e.g., spreadsheet, journal, typed list, website, or our readymade log).

Rules of the Challenge

- You must be an independent reader, age 13 or younger, to participate in the Book Fanatic for Kids Challenge.
- This challenge requires you to read 25 books in a year. Each book must match one of the 27 categories listed (you can skip two).
- You have to read books that are 100 pages or longer.
- You cannot count intermediate fiction, easy readers, picture books, or board books.
- You can count audiobooks if the print version is 100 pages or longer.
- When you finish a book, write the title and author in your reading log, then ask a parent, teacher or librarian to initial the page to verify that you are finished.
- To claim your prize, bring your completed reading log back to the library by February 14, 2023, 6:00 pm.
